PEOPLE YOU SHOULD KNOW

Our congregation is filled with people who use their talents to serve the Lord and others. It takes the work of all in order for the church to function well. Much of the work that is done here is not seen on Sunday morning. Following is a list of activities that goes on here that you do not necessarily see being done. Do you know who:

- Prepares communion for worship?
- Takes communion to the shut-ins?
- Prepares the service calendar?
- Makes repairs on the building and grounds?
- Opens and closes the building?
- Changes the sign board?
- Teaches in our education program?
- Greets visitors?
- Visits the sick?
- Designed and updates our web site?
- Prepares financial reports?
- Plans senior saint outings?
- Leads and participates in small groups?
- Prays for you every day?
- Keeps the church technology in operation?
- Works with the youth?
- Arranges for potluck meals?
- Keeps an inventory of sermons preached at Fairfield?
- Takes attendance?

I have purposely left the names off because most of these servants are not seeking glory here. They serve because they love the Lord. This list is not an exhaustive listing. The reason for publishing this list is to get us to think about what each of is doing to serve the Lord and one another.
