HOW TO "BUILD UP" THE CHURCH

Author: Unknown

Let all lukewarm members fire up!

Let all bitter and sour critics sweeten up!

Let all sleepers wake up!

Let all absentees show up!

Let all who know and love the truth speak up!

Let all the down and out get up!

Let all the peeved ones make up!

Let all the sinners and backsliders confess up!

Let all the gossipers shut up!

Let all as prospered lay up!

Let all discouraged look up!

Let all the faint-hearted cheer up!

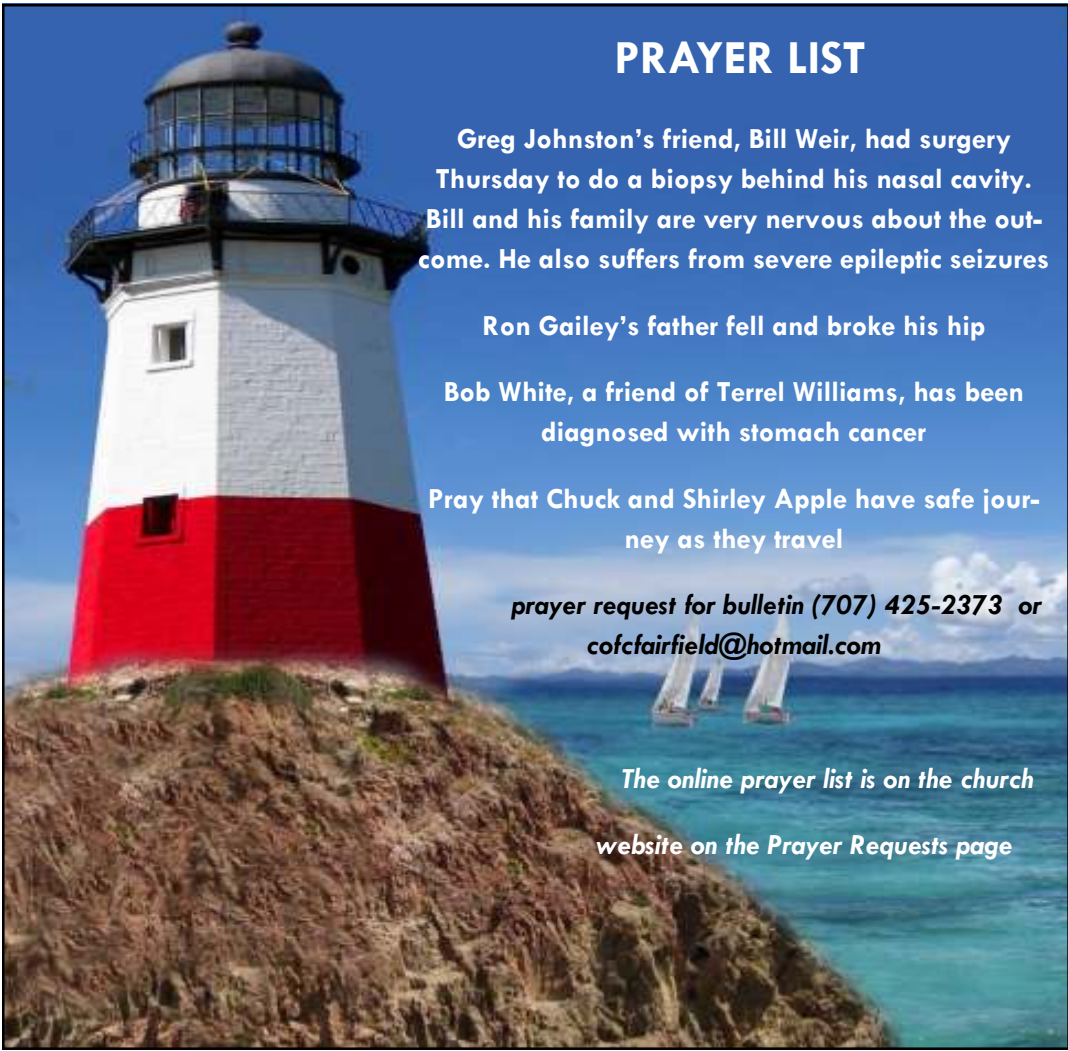

Let all the crooked straighten up!

Let all those who desire heaven stand up!

THE STORY Behind The Song

“It Is Well With
My Soul”

Horatio G. Spafford was a successful attorney in Chicago and was the father of four daughters.

In November, 1873, the ship Spafford’s wife and daughters were on was struck by an English vessel and sank in 12 minutes. All four of his daughters were among the 226 who drowned.

Mrs. Spafford was among the few who were miraculously saved.

Later, Horatio Spafford stood hour after hour on the deck of the ship carrying him to rejoin his sorrowing wife in Cardiff, Wales. When the ship passed the approximate place where his precious daughters had drowned, Spafford received sustaining comfort from God that enabled him to write the words of this hymn: "When sorrows like sea billows roll ... It is well with my soul."

“It Is Well With My Soul”

*When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll,
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say,
It is well, it is well with my soul.*

*CHORUS: It is well with my soul,
it is well, it is well with my soul.*

*My sin- O the joy of this glorious thought-
My sin, not in part, but the whole, Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more: Praise
the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!*

(3) And, Lord, haste the day when my faith shall be sight, The clouds be rolled back as a scroll: The trump shall resound and the Lord shall descend, "Even so"- it is well with my soul.
