DEEP DOWN IN MY HEART

Do you remember the words to the song?

I love the Lord, Messiah, deep down in my heart. (2x)

CHORUS - guys

sing deep deep, sing down down sing deep down in my heart. O yeah.

CHORUS - girls

Deep down, deep down in my heart

Verse 2

I love to sing His praises...

Verse 3

I love my Christian family...

At camp, we would sing the song and the guys would try to sing their part as a bass - most of the time the guy's voices would crack because they were maturing. I am not sure that we enjoyed the song because of its theological implications, but the words remain with many of us even today.

Many of the so-called camp songs have stayed with us because they do have an enduring quality about them. They endure because the message of the song grows as we grow in our faith. I do not know about you, but my faith was certainly not at any mature level in my pre-teen and teenage years. My faith is still maturing today.

In the same way, I did not know what real love was back then. I am beginning to have a better grasp of love.

Loving the Lord and appreciating Him more and more each day for how he blesses, refines, and molds me into a vessel fit for His use is what causes me to want to sing the song.

My love is no longer just a mental affirmation that Jesus is Lord; it has become my purpose for living. My love is no longer expressed in quoting book, chapter, and verse, but in showing that Jesus first loved me by demonstrating a serving attitude that comes from deep down in my heart. O yeah.
