PREPARING FOR HOMECOMING

It is hard to believe, but next weekend, September 2-4, is homecoming weekend. A considerable amount of work has gone into the planning of this event. The preparation for homecoming has truly been a congregational affair as entertainment, activities, and of course food has been planned. A housing committee has secured housing and hotels for guests to stay, and a youth activities day has been planned for Saturday here at the building. Confirmations have been received from the states of Texas, Oregon, Tennessee, Colorado, and Arizona. A number of people from California have also confirmed their intent to attend.

Aside from the effort to invite those who have attended in Fairfield and since moved away, we have sought to identify those who were once members here and have fallen away from their walk with the Lord. We believe this effort is evangelistic in nature as well as to be edifying. Tony Wade has prepared some wonderful entertainment for the Saturday night banquet including a "Family Feud" game, and there will be singing from our own "We Do Praz."

A train trip to Old Sacramento is planned for Saturday September 3, 2011. There are currently about 10 people signed up to take that trip. Sign-up sheets for all the weekend events are on the table in the foyer. Please take the time today to sign your name on those activities you will be attending so proper preparations and food will be available for all.

Please pray for God's blessing upon the activities planned for September 2-4. If you know of someone living in the Northern California area that once attended in Fairfield, please take the time to invite them to all or part of our homecoming weekend. A schedule of events for the weekend is printed in this bulletin.

May God be glorified in His church at Fairfield!
